WASHINGTON, March 14 .- It seems that here is to be a good feeling between the blaine family and the President's house-old, which was unexpe tedly insugurated esterday by the call of Mr. Blaine at the White House. At 50 clock this afternoon a carriage drove up to the front steps of the mansion, and Mrs. Bisineslighted. She went swiftly into the White House, and small steps. conducted to the reception-room, where Miss Cleveland, the President's sister received here with the utmost cordiality. The two ladies chatted pleasanily for near ly an hour, the President in the meantime deopping in and being presented to Mrs. Blaine. Miss Cleveland saw her guest to the door, and Mrs. Blaine departed all smiles. Both the ladies expressed the earmest admiration for each other to-night, and Mrs. Blaine, who kept away from the White House during Arthur's
